The preparations for this convocation are in charge of an Executive Committee of six, chosen by Miliard Division 104 and New York City Division 59 of the order of kall-way Conductors. The former represents the Ontario and Western and the latter the New York Central system and Long Island roads. The Committee, which consists of C. A. Webz, Chairman; J. E. Braze and George F. Close, representing Miliard Division, and C. It is known however, that Mr. Fish had in Close, representing Millard Division, and C.
H. Dale, F. A. Pox and Martin Clouch, of the New York City Division, held a meeting this morning at 15 Nassau street, at which the Chairman was authorized to appoint a committee of 120, representing in equal proportions the four sections of the railroad organmittee of 120, representing in equal proportions the four sections of the railroad organ-

This Committee will have charge of the reception of the delegates, who are expected to be present from all parts of the country from Maine to Oregon. The New York organization will have charge of the whole arfair.

There will be two sessions of the Convention, one in the morning and one in the atternoon of Jan. 31, and a public reception in the evening. The number of delegates will probably reach up into the thousands.

Chief Arthur, of the Brotherhood of Engineers; Chief Prank Sargent, of the Brotherhood of Engineers; Chief Clark, of the Conductors; Chief Prank Sargent, of the Firemen's, and Chief Wilkinson, of the Brakemen's Unious, are all expected to be present.

The ouject is to form a closer union between the various classes of railroad employees. The Executive Committee has authorized the printing of 5,000 souvenir programmes containing sixty pages each and giving thirty-air portraits of leading men in the various organizations. A combination emblem will also be struck off, which all the delegates will wear on the day of the Convention.
